ABOUT ME

Hello, I'm Ephrem Tesfaye, a Full Stack Web Developer from Ethiopia. With a passion for building online applications, I specialize in utilizing MySQL, Node.js, React, and Express. I believe that a website should go beyond being a mere collection of web pages; it should reflect the essence of the company or individual it represents. With a strong foundation in computer science concepts and programming languages, I approach every project with dedication and perseverance, whether as part of a team or independently.

I have a thirst for acquiring new knowledge and continuously expanding my skill set. Graduating from Unity University as part of the 39th class, I was honored with a gold medal and trophy for achieving the highest cumulative GPA of 4.00. Currently, I am pursuing an MSc in Software Engineering at Addis Ababa University.
